Spring Awakening. He has been seen in Columbus as Benvolio in Actor's Theatre's production of Romeo and Juliet and as Herman in Short North Stage's production of Cabaret. When not acting, singing, or fiddling, Jordan is an avid gardener and mad scientist in the kitchen. He would like to thank his family and friends, most notably his mom, for all of their love and support for him being a hippie in real life as well as onstage. Love!"

Luke (Berger) will be entering his sophomore year at Otterbein University as a Musical Theatre major this fall. Most recently he played Ethan in Otterbein's production of The Full Monty. He would like to thank his amazing family, friends and Tribe for their support and love!

Dakota Thorn (Jeanie) is thrilled to be performing in her first show with Imagine. Around Columbus, she has been seen in CCT's Shrek and SRO's The Sound of Music. She has also worked for The Huron Playhouse where she performed as Rose in Gypsy and as Featured Ensemble in The Wizard of Oz! She lives her days out loving her Mastiff Puppy, Odafin and trying to make the most of her time. This is an amazing "tribe" of cast mates and she loves each of them dearly. Also, she would like to give a shout-out to her family and friends for all the support!

Kelsey Tschanen (Suzannah) has a degree in History from THE Ohio State University, and currently works there as an Admissions Counselor. She is excited to be doing her second show with Imagine. She has previously been on the Imagine stage as Tracy Turnblad in Hairspray. Other past shows include The Mystery of Edwin Drood, The Drowsy Chaperone (Co-Director), The Wedding Singer, and Urinetown all with Off The Lake Productions. She would like to thank her tribe members and the production staff for all of their hard work! She would also like to thank her friends and family for their constant love and support. Last, but not least, she would like to thank her incredible boyfriend Zac for all that he does for her both on and off the stage. I love you.

Keith Wollenberg (Assistant Stage Manager) recently went back into the world of theater eight years ago when he was in Center Stage Players' Gypsy. Keith received his Bachelor of Arts and Sciences in Theater from OSU in 1996. He has been in various theater productions around Columbus since then starting in Scrooge at Columbus Children's Theater. He also was in Center Stage Players Production of The Rocky Horror Show, Dark Woods Outdoor Production of The Legend of Saran, and most recently in Monster Art Productions, Monster Comedy 3D. Keith has also been Assistant Stage Manager to the original OSU production of Yellow Moon Rising, the Center Stage Production of Nuncrackers, and now is enjoying the talent of the young group in HAIR. Keith enjoys time with his boyfriend, Dave, his family and his cat, Sydney, and hopes to do more theater either backstage or front stage in the future.

love to all!

Jessica Parker (Marjorie) is ecstatic to be part of this hippie life! She has a wide range to share tonight with her experience being a conservative female with Imagine as Janet Weiss in The Rocky Horror Show to taking pole fitness classes in the Short North and dancing several years and styles with Columbus Entertainment Productions for Charity! You might have seen her behind the scenes running sound during Imagine's run of 9 to 5 or possibly around Otterbein University campus where she graduated from their Theater & Dance department in 2012. Either way, she hopes all of those in the audience have a rad time tonight and know that she loves all those near to here!

Michael Quinichett (Hud) is stoked to end his local theatre hiatus by performing in Hair! He's been living the hippie life for 10 years, on stage in Virginia, Florida, Colorado, North Carolina, Montana, and many other states. Favorite roles/shows include Horse (The Full Monty), Jim (Big River), Ken (Smokey Joes Cafe), and Judas (Jesus Christ Superstar). Thanks to Tim, Michael, Sage, and Josh for this far out trip. Peace and hair grease.

Johnny Robison (Steve) is a Pisces who digs small business accounting, board games and strumming the banjo with his chic flower chick, Shelby. Some of his favorite past productions include The Drowsy

Chaperone (Off The Lake Productions), Les Miserables (Hilliard Arts Council), and Day of Absence (Black Student Theater Network). He would just like to say that he is in love with the entire production team as well as every soul in this harmonious tribe. Get hip and give peace a chance you groovy people!

Kirsten Rosenthal (Emmaretta) is absolutely honored & thrilled to be joining the tribe of HAIR in her first performance with Imagine! A 2013 graduate of Miami University, Kirsten was actively involved in Stage Left, Miami's only student-run musical theatre group and performed as a singer and featured dancer with the MU music department's productions of It's a Grand Night for Singing from 2011 to 2013. She has also been seen in Oliver! (as Oliver), and made her directorial debut as the director of choreography for Guys & Dolls. Kirsten would like to thank Michael, Sage, & the entire Hair/Imagine creative & production team for giving her this opportunity, and her family & friends for their continuous support and encouragement. Enjoy the show, everyone!

Jordan Shafer (Leata) is super excited to be a member of this fun loving hippie tribe. This will mark her 3rd show with Imagine Productions, previously appearing in Hairspray

(LouAnn) and Young Frankenstein (Ensemble). Jordan will be a senior at the Arts and College Preparatory Academy this fall. She would like to thank Michael, Ed, Sage and Josh for bringing together this amazing production. Make love, not war! <3

Jordan Shear (Woof) is ecstatic to be returning to Imagine Productions for HAIR after serving as violinist for their production of

Candice Kight (Sheila) is overjoyed to be making her Imagine debut in Hair! She feels so lucky to join this beautiful tribe in a summer of beads, flowers, freedom, and happiness. She is currently pursuing a B.M. in Vocal Performance at Baldwin Wallace University Conservatory of Music. Recent roles include Mabel (Pirates of Penzance, Baldwin Wallace Opera) and Julia (The Wedding Singer, Columbus Children's Theatre) for which she received a 2014 Central Ohio Theatre Roundtable Award. Love! ☺

Tom Miller (Paul) is thrilled to experience the Acid Test in his third show with Imagine. In the past year, he has performed with Imagine in 9 to 5: the Musical as Josh Newstead, and La Cage Aux Folles as Etienne/Francis. Other notable roles include Robbie Hart and Tom Wingfield. Tom studied Theatre Technology at DePaul University, and works as a Front Desk Night Manager at Holiday Inn. A big thank you goes out to his family and friends, Bronwyn and David Hopton, Michael, Zac, and of course, the beautiful and talented Tribe for all of their love and support!

Sage Moreno (Choreographer/Assistant Director) enjoyed this chance to let her inner hippie out. She got her start instructing ballroom and Latin dancing as well as belly dance. For Imagine, Sage has choreographed Hairspray and performed in Chicago. Sage also loves teaching language arts, her husband Julio, and watching the amazing Hair tribe light up the stage with peace, love, and happiness.

Nick Navaratnam (Walter/Margaret Mead) is absolutely ecstatic to make his Imagine debut in Hair. You might recognize him as an Off the Lake Productions alumni performing previously as Aldolpho in The Drowsy Chaperone and Neville Landless in The Mystery of Edwin Drood, or if you look way back as Marcellus in The Music Man at Hilliard Davidson HS. He recently graduated with a degree in finance from Ohio State and is currently utilizing those skills as a Financial Analyst for a healthcare services company right here in Central Ohio. He would like to thank his Tribe for this incredible experience, his team for their flexibility, and his parents and friends for their support in all of my endeavors.

Michael Newsome (Director) is excited and blessed to have the honor of working with this amazing cast and crew. He was last seen onstage in the recent cabaret Let's Duet

Together and he previously directed Hairspray for Imagine two summers ago. Now, if he can only find another show set in the sixties that deals with complex social issues against a backdrop of fabulous clothing, music and hairstyles for the summer of 2016... In the meantime, Michael hopes you have as much fun watching this performance as he had helping to prepare it. A special thanks to Brian Forney for all of the love and support, and a great big hippie hug to the staff and board of Imagine Productions for this wonderful opportunity. Peace and with The OSU School of Music for the 2011-2012 school year. She would like to thank everyone for their support and is excited to see the growth in both herself and Imagine Productions in the coming years!

Phil Brown Dupont (Rehearsal Accompanist)

is a pianist and composer hailing from Bowling Green Ohio and Amherst Massachusetts.

Interests include comics, contemporary dance, the history and practice of American song, and homemaking. This is his second project with Imagine.

Ed Eblin (Stage Manager)

is no stranger to local community theatre in Central Ohio. Ed is one of the founders of Imagine Productions, where he initially served as President of the board and is currently in the role of Treasurer. Prior to his affiliation with Imagine, Ed was a board member and the Artistic Director for Center Stage Players from 2003 through 2010. He has been affiliated with numerous productions as an actor, director, stage manager, and in other technical capacities. When he is not busy with his theatre hobby, he is a high school math teacher at Eastland Career Center in Groveport. He also is an adjunct instructor for Columbus State Community College. He resides in the Short North with his partner, Ryan, and their two dogs Jack and Haley.

Joshua Fouasnon (Hiram/Hubert)

is going into his third year as a Chemical Engineering major at The Ohio State University. He migrated from warm weather and sunny beaches in Long Beach,

Mississippi to live in the cold, yet extraordinary city of Columbus. Josh has been a part of musical theater since he was a wee lad. He has performed in Willy Wonka, Jr., Beauty and the Beast, Les Misérables, and Phantom of the Opera. You might have also seen him in All Shook Up and Pippin with Off the Lake Productions, an Ohio State University student-run organization. He is so thrilled to be a part of Imagine Productions and HAIR. He is extremely proud of everyone involved for their positivity, friendly spirits, and 200% dedication to making this production of HAIR spectacular. He hopes you leave the show with positive vibes and the urge to grow your hair.

Rachel Gaunce (Mary)

is thrilled to be in her second show with Imagine. You may have seen her previously at Martha in Spring Awakening with Imagine. Some of her other favorite roles include Ophelia in Hamlet with the Black Box Theatre Company (BBTC) and Actor's Theatre, Shelby in Steel Magnolias with BBTC, and Margot in The Diary of Anne Frank with TAPA. She is excited to attend Ohio University next year for theatre. Rachel wants to thank her friends and family for their support and the amazing cast and crew for making this show such a fun experience.

though typically "on stage", has certainly been involved in costuming and was happy to join the Hairspray team to take on his first full show as costumer! Most recently Doug was seen as Mother Superior in The Divine Sister at Short North Stage. Other area credits include Wilbur Turnblad in Hairspray with Imagine, Captain Hook in Peter Pan with

Setting

We meet a tribe of hippies in a park in Greenwich Village, New York City. It's 1968. In the age of Aquarius, a time of harmony and understanding, sex and drugs are used as vehicles to evade reality and the establishments.

Story

We are introduced to members of the tribe including Berger who is looking for a lost love named "Donna," Woof who is celebrating sexual liberation through "Sodomy," and Hud who describes his plight as a "Colored Spade." Then we meet Claude ("Manchester, England") who becomes the central character. They celebrate what they do not have and the value of having a simple life ("Ain't Got No"). Sheila arrives and chants in protest at war ("I Believe in Love"). A pregnant woman, Jeannie sings about pollution ("Air"). Members of the tribe dress as Claude's parents and berate him for not having a job and wasting his life and declare that the army will sort him out. He celebrates the tribe's embracing of life rather than society's expectations ("I Got Life"). He is then drafted into the Vietnam War and is torn about what to do. Two tribe members dress as tourists who question the others about their long hair. The entire tribe breaks into a celebration of the symbolism of their "Hair." Sheila and Berger, a mischievous member of the tribe, reveal their complicated romantic history. Everyone attends a "Be-In" in protest of the war, at which the men burn their draft cards apart from Claude who still questions what to do ("Where Do I Go?"). The tribe acts out scenes from Claude's induction into the army. The women of the tribe explain their love of "Black Boys" and "White Boys." Berger gives Claude hallucinogenic drugs and he has a trip that has him meet famous Americans throughout history, including George Washington, General Custer, Abraham Lincoln, and recounts the often violent history of the country's progress. Buddhist monks and Catholic nuns arrive and murder each other in a symbolic vision of how religion has been used to justify wars. Amidst the growing pile of dead bodies, the remaining members of the tribe reflect on "What a Piece of Work Is Man." In the aftermath, Claude disappears, while Sheila leads the tribe in "Good Morning Starshine." Claude arrives in his military uniform, but he is now invisible to the others. The tribe begins to sing "Let the Sun Shine In" jubilantly before revealing Claude, now dead after being killed in action.

The videotaping or other video or audio recording of this production is strictly prohibited.

Samara (Ronny) Baptist is excited to be a part of her 2nd show with Imagine. Samara started out by going to AMDA-NY, then getting a Theatre degree from The New School, then booking the part of Sarah in Ragtime right out of college. Since then she has never stopped. Shows include Chicago with Imagine (Mamma Morton), AIDA (Aida), Seussical (Sour Kangaroo), Nighthawks (Lilah), Hair (Dionne), and many more. When not on stage Samara is a manager and bartender at Rule3. Samara would like to shout out to her amazing cast, her C4C family, her amazing family and friends for all their support, and Kevin for putting up with never seeing me. Love, peace, and happiness!

Joshua Boggs (Music Director) is excited to work on his first production with Imagine. Josh recently graduated with a BM in voice from Ohio Wesleyan University, and will start his master's in choral conducting this fall at the University of Notre Dame. As a soloist, he has been featured with the Central Ohio Symphony, OWU Choral Arts Society, Magpie Consort, and the Saint Joseph Cathedral Choir, among others. Studies in music have led him to complete programs in L.A., D.C., Salzburg (AUS), and Halifax, Nova Scotia. He has primarily worked with opera the last few years, and is happy to be working with musicals again.

Shelby Butz (Crissy) is a Cancer who loves pasta, laughing, ice cream, and making music with her real-life Frank Mills, Johnny. Some of her favorite past roles include Edwin Drood in Drood and Adelaide in Guys and Dolls. She is thankful to the entire production team for letting her be a part of this beautiful tribe, and to all of the tribe for making this a transcendental experience. Shelby is grateful to her family and friends for their endless love and support. She would like to dedicate this performance to her effortlessly groovy grandmother. Peace, flowers, and happiness!

Jonathan Collura (Claude) is thrilled to be making his fourth Imagine Productions appearance. Previous Imagine credits include: The Rocky Horror Show (Riff Raff), Urinetown (Hot Blades Harry) and Young Frankenstein (Frederick), and he just directed Imagine's production of RENT. Jonathan is a graduate of The Ohio State University, and just completed his fourth year as the Choir and Drama director at Bishop Hartley High School. Other theatre credits include: tick, tick...BOOM (Jon), Aida (Radames), Cabaret (Emcee), Into the Woods (Jack), Shrek (Lord Farquaad), and RENT (Mark). Jonathan would like to thank his family for their constant love and support, and would like to thank the cast and crew of Hair for making this a dream come true!

Akillah Clark (Dionne) was one of the youngest members of our cast in Hairspray two summers ago and this spring in RENT. She is thrilled about participating in this wonderful production. In the past she has been an active theater member in her school, starting as Meg in Leading Ladies, the very confusing role of The Griffin in Alice in Wonderland and Velma Kelly in Chicago. She also stage managed Columbus Alternative High School's production of Mouse Trap. She interned
